

32nd Annual Land Use Law & Planning Conference

Friday, January 19, 2018 ▪ Millennium Biltmore Hotel Los Angeles

Learn, network, and keep current.

Keep up-to-date on the latest in California policy developments in land use, environment, and planning law, by attending the 32nd Annual Land Use Law & Planning Conference.

Keynote Speaker: Richard Rothstein, author of The Color of Law

Select conference updates and assessments include:

- The Housing Crisis: The More Things Change The More They Stay the Same
- CEQA 2017: The Supreme Court Weighs In
- Climate Actions Plans: Embracing or Retreating Post-Newhall?
- Planning, Zoning, and Development Law: A Heapin' Helping of Housing, and So Much More
- Transportation Infrastructure: Mobility, Choice, and VMT

Who Should Attend?

All individuals involved in land use and environmental Issues in California, including:

- Public officials & planners
- Attorneys & consultants
- Developers & real estate professionals

Reserve your space early and save 10% during early enrollment!

$535 by Dec 20; $595 after

Course materials, morning refreshments, and lunch provided.

7 hours of AICP (CM) credit; 7 hours of MCLE credit

For more information visit:

humanities.uclaextension.edu/public-policy/landuse/
or contact us at (310) 825-7093